Harding's Letter Today Said To Be Mandatory in Terms.

SHOPMEN'S LEADERS AT CHI

Acceptance by Jewell on Behalf of Shopmen Is Forecast.

This Afternoon Should See the Final Result of Parleys.

(By the Associated Press.)

New York, Aug. 1.—Railway executives today rejected the proposal of President Harding that striking shopmen be reinstated without forfeiting seniority rights but accepted conditionally the other two suggestions made by the White House for settlement of the nation-wide strike.

This announcement was made by President Lorce of the Delaware & Hudson after the heads of 148 roads had met here today, considered Harding's program, drafted a reply and adjourned.

Most of those close to the conference maintained that unionists' statement of strikers would be "a rank injustice" to men who had replaced striking workers. In addition, it was felt that if the seniority conditions were accepted it would mean that the union men would "discipline" those who had helped to break the strike.

"No Separate Settlement." Emphatic denial that any roads would effect a separate settlement with the strikers independent of the stand taken by the majority was made by those close to the executives' conference when the unionists' statement of strikers was received at the White House. This reply it was indicated would be dispatched immediately.

Altho the text of the Harding letter was not made public here, it was reported to provide more mandatory in tone than had been expected. The text, it was understood, differed from that written by Herbert M. Jewell, labor leader, when the administration's program was forwarded to the strikers in Chicago.

"No Moral Reason Why." Judge Lovett of the U. S. Pacific generally regarded the plan of railway executives, was the principal speaker when the presidents reconvened at the noon session. The text of the Harding proposals before them embodying the provisions for reinstatement of strikers with the seniority ranking they held before the walkout.

Judge Lovett was reported to have told the executives that there was no moral reason why the roads should buy back from their position nor was there any practical reason, inasmuch as the country's railroad service was generally satisfactory.

It was announced that the executives would not make public either the text of the letter or the reply. Harding sent with his proposals amplifying them, or the reply of the railroad executives, was received at the White House. This reply it was indicated would be dispatched immediately.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—A proposition that the striking shopmen settle their strike with the roads that are willing to agree to President Harding's proposals regardless of whether all the roads agree to them, will be placed before the meeting of union chiefs in session here.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—President Harding's plan for settlement of the railroad strike became known in its official detail here today just as the executive committee of the striking railway shopmen went into conference to determine their attitude toward the president's proposals. The plan was set forth in a telegram to H. M. Jewell, head of the strikers' union.

In its essentials it proposes immediate return to work of the shopmen with seniority rights unimpaired; rehiring by the United States railway labor board of all matters in controversy and agreement by the carriers and by the union to recognize the validity of the labor board's decision and to obey the board's rulings. The text of the president's telegram to Jewell follows:

"I am hereby conveying to you the terms of agreement upon which the railway managers and the shopmen craft workers are to unite preliminary to calling off the existing strike."

LEWIS ISSUES CALL TO PARLEY OVER COAL TIEP

But Operators Say They'll Refuse to Meet Mine Head.

Declare His Call Is Just a Bluff to Quiet the Public.

HARDING FAVORS THE IDEA

But Official Statement on the Attempt Not Forthcoming.

Probability That Few Operators Will Confer Is Expressed.

(By the Associated Press.)

Philadelphia, Aug. 1.—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, took a definite step toward ending the coal strike today when he invited operators of the central competitive field to meet him in conference at the Hotel Hamilton in Cleveland Monday, August 7, 1922, for the purpose of negotiating a basic wage agreement designed to terminate the present suspension in the mining industry. I express the sincere hope that the interest represented by you will find it possible to participate in the joint negotiations.

(Signed) "JOHN L. LEWIS, President of the United Mine Workers of America."

An official statement by him follows: "In issuing an invitation to the operators of the central competitive field to assemble in joint conference in Cleveland on August 7, I am actuated by the highest consideration of public welfare and the impelling necessity for an early adjudication of the issues involved in the bituminous and anthracite coal fields."

"Consider the Public."

"This strike, unparalleled in its magnitude, is now in its eighteenth week and constitutes an industrial convulsion which menaces the financial and social fabric of our nation. Aside from the tremendous personal suffering and distress which it causes, the mine workers' strike is exacting penalties from every citizen of our land and is clogging the channels of commerce and credit through the civilized world."

"Tosses Blame to Operators." "In consideration of these facts and notwithstanding the powerful position of advantage now enjoyed by the mine workers, we have resolved to attempt again to discontinue the strike where passion will be allayed and reason predominate. We are able to do this, but only if the operators of the coal fields will meet us on the basis of peace to the ill of industrial warfare. We feel that the American public will support our offer to meet at the conference table."

"Those who block the success of such a conference by refusal to participate should therefore bear full responsibility for the continuing situation."

It is expected the makeup of the conference will follow as nearly as possible those of other years. The miners will probably be represented by eight or ten delegates from the four states. The representation of the operators will depend upon number that respond to the call.

Kavanaugh Won't Go. St. Louis, Aug. 1.—"You may state most emphatically that we are thru attending any conferences that may be called by Mr. Lewis," W. Kavanaugh, president of the Fifth and Ninth Illinois District Coal Operators' association, said today.

"This call is a bluff on the part of the miners to pick up a few operators in conference and then term the meeting one of the central competitive field with the roads that are willing to agree to President Harding's proposals regardless of whether all the roads agree to them, will be placed before the meeting of union chiefs in session here."

Twenty-Five Injured Also, in Crash Near Cincinnati.

C. L. & N. Passenger Trains Go Head on at Crossing.

Cincinnati, Aug. 1.—Ten persons were killed and twenty-five injured more or less seriously at 11 o'clock this morning when two Cincinnati, Lebanon & Northern passenger trains crashed together head-on at the Lenter road crossing in Pleasantridge. One of the engines was driven backwards, telescoping the first coach behind it and killing everyone inside.

All available fire apparatus in the city has been rushed to the scene as well as police patrols and hospital ambulances from all the hospitals. Fifty private automobiles are also on the scene, and the Cincinnati police are rushing to the spot.

There were five passenger coaches on train and two in the other, but only one car telescoped when the crash came. This coach crumpled like a match box and the occupants were caught in the wreck which presented an almost hopeless tangle to rescue workers.

It is thought that the engineers and firemen of the two engines were killed in the collision, the information at this time regarding them was not available.

(By the Associated Press.) London, Aug. 1.—There is a noticeable lull in the American demand for British coal, due to the inability of the exporters to guarantee early delivery.

With little prospect of further shipments before September, the buyers are naturally inclined to wait. Congestion at various British ports is unrelieved.

HEAVY VOTE HERE Striking Shopmen Cast Their Ballots Early Today.

In Some Precincts Voting Was Light During Forenoon.

IS LIGHTER ON WEST SIDE

In This District Ballots Will Be Cast Late.

Call Sent to Clerk for More Republican Ballots.

Voting in the primary election in Topeka this forenoon and early this afternoon was so spotty and varied as the campaigns have been. The ballot cast early in the day ranged from very light to heavier than it ever has been before, in different precincts.

On a factor which brought this about was the vote of the striking shopmen in the east side precincts. Having nothing better to do, the shopmen have been voting and voting early.

In the sixth precinct of the Second ward, there were 123 votes cast before noon. Of that number at least 110 were Republican tickets—and that precinct voted three to one Democratic at the last general election.

Shopmen Vote Early. The fact that the shopmen are off duty means that the votes in those precincts will be early and heavy. Just before noon the fact that the shopmen had balloted as follows: Fourth precinct, seventy-four; seventh precinct, fifty; eighth precinct, fifty. All of these figures are high for the precincts in question, at that time of day.

On the contrary, on the west side of Kansas avenue, the vote has been rather lighter than usual during the morning and noon hours. This is explained by the fact that most of the stores and offices are closing at 5 o'clock or 5:30 o'clock, giving the employees time to do their voting.

At the first precinct of the Third ward, the vote at 2 o'clock this afternoon was 145 out of a registration of 587; at the second precinct, the vote was 128 at the fifth precinct of the Second ward the vote was 135, about 20 out of a registration of between 400 and 500.

Light Vote in Fourth Ward. At the Provident association, the second precinct of the Fourth ward, the vote at 2 o'clock this afternoon was 145 out of a registration of 435.

At the Central Congregational church, where the votes of the sixth precinct of the Third ward were cast, there had been cast 247 votes out of a registration of 840 at 2 o'clock.

At 1420 Kansas avenue, always a late voting precinct, the second of the Fifth ward, there had been cast 119 votes out of a registration of between 400 and 500.

In most of the precincts the voting thus far has been more or less a massed vote, the bulk of the vote being cast in the forenoon and early morning, and that there are many men to come in later in the day.

The bulk of the vote has been overwhelmingly Republican in every precinct of every ward. Several calls for more Republican ballots were sent to the county clerk before noon today.
